Declaration

The East Riding of Yorkshire Council collects and processes data, including personal data about its residents, to allow it to provide services effectively. Although the council is made up of many different departments, for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 2018 (and any subsequent amendments) it is only one organisation.

How we use your information

We collect, use and store personal information (in line with the UK Data Protection laws). Your information will be used to enable us to assess whether your application meets the criteria for assistance from the Safe and Sound grant scheme and if so, to share information with our contractor who delivers the service on our behalf.

Storing your data

We have a duty to protect data and treat your information securely. As part of this we only transfer or share information when we have everything in place to make it safe and legal. We will share your information with our contractor and when completing this form you will be asked for your permission to do this. Your information will be stored for two years. More information about how we store and retain your data.

Your rights

We will always tell you what we are using your data for. You have a number of rights in relation to how we use your personal data. Find out more about your data protection rights and how to exercise them. Our privacy hub provides information on what to do if you are unhappy with how we have handled your data.
